

Soldier

High Valley

Love, it's time to leave, I'm gone, no in-between Face the facts, it's do or die, I'll be back so don't you cry
Soldier

I'm gonna ride this train, no time to change
I made a vow to keep you safe, I'll take that promise to the grave
Soldier Hey hey hey, I'll be coming home to you
You're the burning fire that my heart is beating to
You're like red, white, blue, I'd do it all for you
I'd fight a war and win it; you make me bulletproof I'll be your soldier
Dark days ahead, skies tainted red

All the time I'm counting down until the wind comes back around
Soldier
Words keep me strong, protect me from the storm
When I'm down I'll pray for grace, 'til the day
I see your face
Soldier

Hey hey hey, I'll be coming home to you
You're the burning fire that my heart is beating to
You're like red, white, blue, I'd do it all for you
I'd fight a war and win it; you make me bulletproof
I'll be your soldier
I'll be your soldier

Hey hey hey, I'll be coming home to you
You're the burning fire that my heart is beating to
You're like red, white, blue, I'd do it all for you
I'd fight a war and win it; you make me bulletproof
Hey hey hey, I'm coming home to you
You're the burning fire that my heart is beating to
You're like red, white, blue, I'd do it all for you
I'd fight a war and win it; you make me bulletproof
I'll be your soldier
I'll be your soldier
I'll be your soldier

I'd fight a war and win it; you make me bulletproof
I'll be your soldier
I'll be coming home for you
I'm coming home for you
I'll be your soldier
