

Windows

Missing Persons

Something feels so strange tonight it's not wrong but it's just not right some hidden complications, fill me with hesitation and it gets so dark in here I can't see through doubts and fears walled in by expectation, I need a deviation change in perspective, alternative view to help me see clearly, observe something new All I want is a window to look through All I need is a window to look through
It's the only thing that I really wanna do anyway
All I want is a window to look through
All I need is a window to look through
It's the only thing that I really wanna do anyway outside the world's so dangerous It's hard to find someone to trust fills me with reservation deives me into hibernation I watch whats going on but I don't want to belong leave me in my introspection safely behind protection All I want is a window to look through All I need is a window to look through
It's the only thing that I really wanna do anyway All I want is a window to look through
All I need is a window to look through
It's the only thing that I really wanna do anyway
looking through windows at the world
looking through windows at the world
safe behind windows from the world
safe behind windows from the world
watching my window world go by just watching my window world go by without my window who am I without my window who am I All I want is a window to look through
All I need is a window to look through
It's the only thing that I really wanna do anyway All I want is a window to look through
All I need is a window to look through It's the only thing that I really wanna do anyway All I want
All I want is a window to look through
All I want
All I need is a window to look through
All I need
It's the only thing that I really wanna do anyway All I want is a window to look through
All I need is a window to look through
It's the only thing that I really wanna do anyway
