

Role Play (feat. Scootie)

Eric Bellinger

Caught up in a love affair
You got everything that I want
You got everything that she don't Way you do that, nobody else compares
How you put it on me baby
When you ride it, drive me crazy
You got that shit that make a nigga jealous
Got 'em switching sides on me
Creeping on the side on me
You got me quick to get up in my feelings
Oooh, yeah
When we role play
It's like my girl ain't my girl in a way
Yeah, yeah
When we role play, ah
She gonna be different than yerstaday
Yeah, yeah
When we role play Creep on my girl with my girlfriend
She creep on me with her boyfriend
We be whoever we want, yeah
It makes the sex so much fun, yeah
Wifey could be pulling up any minute, baby, give it to me now
But, before we make love, let's fuck, just try not to make a sound
Bend it over and look me in my eyes
Kiss me 'fore the night is over
Don't know who gon' spend the night
Will it be you?
Will it be you?
Switch it up, be my company
Love it when you come for me (yeah)
When we role play
It's like my girl ain't my girl in a way
Yeah, yeah
When we role play, ah
She gonna be different than yerstaday
Yeah, yeah
When we role play Scratches up and down my back, yeah
You the police, I've been bad, yeah
Doctor, doctor, get my head right
She make it vanish like it's magic
We keep it lit like a matchstick
Baby, you my favourite actress

I'll make you come like invitations
And blow that back, girl, like my last wish
