Danielle Bradbery

Wake up, put my feet on the floor I see colors I've never seen before It scares me and shakes me down the core Cause I know for certain that nothing's for sureOo-oo-oo-oo-oo-oo-oo, 00-00-00-00-00-00-00-lt happened so fast, so much to lose Falling fifty miles an hour without a parachute Trying to resist, but I can't refuse I'm feeling feelings that I never knewOo-oo-oo-oo-oo-oo-oo, yeah 00-00-00-00-00-00-00h, ooh I throw my heart out in the open I always thought love could be mine, but Never like this I've been afraid of being broken I've laid it all out on the line, but Never like thisI found myself in a situation No walls, no reservations Diving in deep, no hesitations It's taking too time and I'm tired of waitingOo-oo-oo-oo-oo-oo, oh 00-00-00-00-00-00-00h, 00-00hI throw my heart out in the open I always thought love could be mine, but Never like this I've been afraid of being broken I've laid it all out on the line, but Never like this Never like this Never like this Never like thisI throw my heart out in the open I always thought love could be mine, but Never like this I've been afraid of being broken I've laid it all out on the line, but Never like thisNever like this Never like this Never like thisOh Like this Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941.
