

More Than Mortal

Bury Tomorrow

Complete the circle, watching our world fall
Restore the orders, no more than mortal
Life eternal, breaking the model
Regain your honour, no more than mortal Complete the circle, watching our world fall
Restore the orders, no more than mortal
Life eternal, breaking the model
Regain your honour, no more than mortal I never wanted it to be like this
I'm still locked inside my head
And now your looking at me like I'm gonna save you
But really I'm the only one who's fading
Whilst I'm staring at myself in the mirror
I'm just trying to keep my composure
And now the echos of my past are shaded
Pushing me towards the point of breaking False gods are here, they've turned this world to stone
Destroy the faith, our souls they'll never own
False idols, their souls encased
False idols, will fall from grace Complete the circle, watching our world fall
Restore the orders, no more than mortal
Life eternal, breaking the model
Regain your honour, no more than mortal No more heroes, no more saviours
No more gods, just betrayers
No more heroes, no more saviours
No more gods, just betrayers
Fuck!
There's no heroes, no fucking saviours
No gods, just betrayers False gods are here, they've turned this world to stone
Destroy the faith, our souls they'll never own
False idols, their souls encased
False idols, will fall from grace False gods are here, they've turned this world to stone
Destroy the faith, our souls they'll never own
False idols, their souls encased
False idols, will fall from grace There's no heroes, no saviours
No gods, just betrayers
No heroes, no saviours
No gods, just betrayers Just betrayers Just betrayers Just betrayers Just betrayers Just betrayers
