Little Things

Bush

I bleach the sky every night Loaded on wrong and further from right Spinning around, two howling moons Cause they're always there, whatever I doThe river is loaded, I've been there today Took in some questions, she does me again I'd die in your arms if you were dead too Here comes a lie, we will always be trueGoing up when coming down Scratch away, way, way, way, way It's all the little things that kill Tearin' at my brains again Oh, all the little things that kill The little things that killBigger you give, bigger you get We're boss at denial but best at forget The cupboard is empty, we really need food Summer is winter and you always knewGoing up when coming down Scratch away, way, way, way, wayIt's all the little things that kill Tearin' at my brains again Oh, all the little things that kill Tearin' at my brains again Oh, all the little, little, little, little, little, little, little, little Little, little, little, little, little, little, little Little, little, little, little, little, little, little I touch your mouth, my willy's food Addicted to love, I'm addicted to bullshit I kill you once, I kill you again We're starving and crude, welcome my friends to The little things that kill Tearin' at my brains again Oh, all the little things that kill Tearin' at my brains again Oh, all the little, little, little, little, little, little, little Little, little, little, little, little, little, little Little, little, little, little, little, little, little Here come the little things Here come the little
