

The Light Freestyle

Quentin Miller

[Verse]

Yooo, hold up (whoa)
Should already know, ya should've been known
Lets talk about this lifestyle I been on
There's a chance I won't live long
Just promise me you'll look out for my kids holmes
Just look out for my kids
Tell 'em 'bout the good shit I did, tell 'em
Always shine your light bright, never dim
Tell 'em get out here and live
Made it happen, we ain't have much
Now it's time to run the bag up
Oh im ready for the game now
Cause I never miss a practice (whoa)
Whoaaa, I feel the light in me
It glows, it glows
I feel the tide comin, I'm standin' on the shore
Yeah, I could feel that, I could, aight, yeah
One time for my real dudes out here gettin' it
One time for my bad bitches out here gettin' it
One time for that brand new Quentin Miller shit
Hype, hype for that brand new Quentin Miller shit
And we want them rings like Belichick
And we want them rings like Phil and 'em
Could care less if ya'll feelin' him
Yeah, I'm in love with that ATM
Making love to the ATM
She hit me up with my favorite friends
The friends that keep the lights on..
The friends that get my daughter brand new Nikes
The friends that gets the shit I like, when I like
Help me really live this life man, damn
Yeah, you say you love me, do you really mean it?
Can I trust you, tell you all my secrets?
Tell you 'bout my biggest demons
Conflicts all I ever knew
Tryna choose the right thing to do
And still generate some revenue
'Cause above everything, cash rules (yeah)
Cash rules everything around me
You ain't get the money, dolla-dolla bills ya'll
Yeah, dolla-dolla bills ya'll

I don't know what the fuck I'm talkin' about

It's a freestyle, mhm

[Outro]

I admit I could've did better

I admit I could've done better

I admit I could've tried harder

I already know what I lost (yeah)

I already know how I lost you

I already know how I lost you
