

No Sex

Limp Bizkit

Went too fast, way too soon.
I feel disgusted and you should too.
It's no good when all that's left is the sex, the sex.
Sex has become all I know about you,
Memories of those filthy things that we do.
There is not one single thought that is left after sex with you. Should've left my pants on this time,
But instead you had to let me dive right in.
Should've left my pants on this time,
You let me dive right, you let me dive right in.
Wait, it's my ass, and your perfume,
They make temptation hard to refuse.
So I guess, we undressed to have sex, dirty sex.
Sex has become all I know about you,
Memories of those filthy things that we do.
There is not one single thought that is left after sex with you. Should've left my pants on this time,
But instead you had to let me dive right in.
Should've left my pants on this time,
You let me dive right, you let me dive right in. How can you respect yourself?
You couldn't respect yourself but,
And I didn't respect myself,
And I couldn't infect myself with...
Realize that I'm worth more than that.
Realize that I'm worth more than that.
Realize that I'm worth more than that.
Realize that I mean more than that!
Should've left my pants on this time,
But instead you had to let me dive right in.
Should've left my pants on this time,
You let me dive right, you let me dive right in.
