

Let Me Fall For You

David Cook

I was wrong, I was wrong,
Thinking my heart can be my own.
I was strong, I was strong, When I had a reason to hold on. Let me fall, let me fall for you.
Let me fall for you. Don't look down, don't look down,
By now it's too late to take it slow.
Turn around, turn around,
Give me a reason to let go. Let me fall, let me fall for you,
Let me fall for you. It's almost over,
I'm hanging by a thread.
With all the words you never said
I'm going under,
So tell me what to do.
I've got nothing to hold on to.
Let me fall for you. All the time, all the time,
You were the one that got me through.
Like a sign, like a sign,
You were the voice that knew the truth. Let me fall, let me fall for you.
Let me fall for you. It's almost over,
I'm hanging by a thread
With all the words
You never said. I'm going under,
So tell me what to do.
I've got nothing to hold on to.
Let me fall for you.
(Let me fall like a stone in the water
Let me fall like a plane out of the sky
Let me crash, let me burn my heart out
Let me learn to fly) It's almost over,
I'm hanging by a thread
With all the words
You never said. I'm going under,
So tell me what to do.
I've got nothing to hold on to.
Let me fall for you. (Let me fall like a stone in the water
Let me fall like a plane out of the sky
Let me crash, let me burn my heart out
Let me learn to fly) Let me fall for you. (Let me fall like a stone in the water
Let me fall like a plane out of the sky
Let me crash, let me burn my heart out
Let me learn to fly)
