"Will the soundtrack kindly produce a sound?"

"Go on, don't be nervous. Go ahead, any sound."

"Well, that isn't quite what I had in mind..."HeyOh my god, there's nobody who can set me right

I've been sent to torch the palace down in broad daylight

I wanna know who you told 'til they're all laying on the floor
frozen to the core

I wanna know who you told till it's nobody anymore

Nobody anymore

Oh my god, I'm a giant with an appetite

Pushin' people to the ground and running round the halls at night

I wanna know who you told 'til they're all laying on the floor
frozen to the core

I wanna know who you told till it's nobody anymore

Nobody anymore

I've been creeping round I saw a little thing I didn't like you tried to hide

I've been creeping round I saw a little thing I didn't like you tried to hide from me

I wanna know who you told there's nobody any-any-any...Nobody anymoreNobody anymore
