

The Sun Will Rise

Rhys Lewis

When life leaves you hopeless
Lying alone with
A heart full of questions
That haven't got answers Sometimes the darkness can feel like it's endless
But as lost as the light seem the sun will rise
When you're surrounded
By nothing but shadows
That stand there like mountains
That you can't see over It's easy to think that your world might be broken
But as lost as
The light seems
The sun will rise
As lost as the light seems
The sun will rise
As lost as the light seems
The sun will rise
