

Land

Fifteen

The homeless are a problem for only one reason
Their presence raises the question
Who owns the Land?

The homeless are a problem for only one reason
Their presence raises the question
Who owns the Land?
Who owns the Land?
Who owns the Land?

Could it be millions of dead indians
Who owns the Land?
Could it be 6 million Jews?
Who owns the Land?
Is there a connection
Who owns the Land?
To our imperialism
Who owns the Land?

Won't someone please tell me.
Who owns the Land?
'cause I am just a white man
Who owns the Land?
I live in the Americas
Who owns the Land?
How did I get here?

This morning I was awoken, by a man with a hand gun
He's got a book of rules that says,
I ain't got no right to sleep

This morning I was awoken, by a man with a hand gun
He's got a book of rules that says, I ain't got no right to be
Who owns the Land?
Who owns the Land?
Is there a connection?
Who owns the Land?
To my daily eviction
Who owns the Land?
And the extermination
Who owns the Land?
Of the Native American
Who owns the Land?

Won't someone please tell me.
Who owns the Land?
'cause I am just a white man
Who owns the Land?

I live in the Americas
Who owns the Land?
How did I get here?
Who owns the Land?
Who owns the Land?
Who owns the Land?
Who owns the Land?
Maybe it's you and me
Who owns the Land?
Maybe it's not
The corporations
Who owns the Land?
Maybe the Earth owns itself
Maybe it's the Native American
Ecocide,
Genocide,
Where is Home?

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>