

Rebel Without a Cause

Blake Lewis

Two months have come and gone since I walked out the door
Now I'm left here kickin' myself 'cause you deserve much more
Infinite reasons why I shouldn't let you go
But I shut you out my life, how could I have been so cold Just 'cause I thought
Alone I'd solve my problems
Thought I'd move on
That I should break the wave I'm gone
Am I running away from what we should be?
And I'm lost
My conscience keep telling me constantly
That baby I'm wrong
'Cause we both belong
Together as one meets our destiny
And I'm lost
Without your love I will be
A rebel without a cause Why'd I leave, why'd I leave,
Why'd I have to be so rebellious? Why'd I leave, why'd I leave,
Why'd I have to be so rebellious? Why'd I leave, why'd I leave,
Why'd I have to be so rebellious? I wish I knew what's goin' on inside your head
So I could hear all of the words you left unsaid (hey)
I'm just too far away and you're too far moved on, oh
Hope I haven't lost your love, how did I wait too long?
Just 'cause I thought
Alone I'd solve my problems
Thought I'd move on
That I should break the wave I'm gone
Am I running away from what we should be?
And I'm lost
My conscience keep telling me constantly
(Ooo, my conscience keeps telling me) That baby I'm wrong
'Cause we both belong
Together as one meets our destiny
And I'm lost
Without your love I will be (I will be)
A rebel without a cause Why'd I leave, why'd I leave,
Why'd I have to be so rebellious? Why'd I leave, why'd I leave,
Why'd I have to be so rebellious? Why'd I leave, why'd I leave,
Why'd I have to be so rebellious? A rebel without a cause
(Rebel without a cause)
A rebel without a cause
