

Ender Will Save Us All

Dashboard Confessional

It's just like you to contest
Wearing like a label on your breast
Don't you see what this takes of me?
A certain callousness complies
With your charm and in your pride
A hopeful look draped in despise I want to give you whatever you need.
What is it you need?
Is it what I need?
I want to give you whatever you need.
What is it you need?
Is it within me? It's hard to explain how I am getting by on so little from you
It's hard to believe that I would let myself get so wrapped into you
There's got to be something that would be worthwhile for me to give to you
We need a connection but you seem to push me far away from you
From you, from you
The harder I push the farther I fall
Well you don't mind me being headstrong
But you don't want to sing along
Maybe it's trite but I can always, always, always be wrong It's just like you to contest
Wearing like a label on your breast
Don't you see what this takes of me?
A certain callousness complies
With your charm and in your pride
A hopeful look draped in despise I want to give you whatever you need.
What is it you need?
Is it what I need?
I want to give you whatever you need.
What is it you need?
Is it within me?
It's hard to explain how I am getting by on so little from you
It's hard to believe that I would let myself get so wrapped into you
There's got to be something that would be worthwhile for me to give to you
We need a connection but you seem to push me far away from you
From you, from you The harder I push the farther I fall
Well you don't mind me being headstrong
But you don't want to sing along
Maybe it's trite but I can always, always, always be wrong
Be wrong
Be wrong Trying not to be
Trying not to be
Trying not to be

Trying not to be wrong
