

Plain (Nadastrom Remix)

Jesse Boykins III

Never thought Id ever be alone again
Never thought youd go and find yourself a new trend
Shouldve known I was always in the dark with you
Shared less words than even secrets do

Plain

This feelings feeling plain

Plain

I always knew wed be plain

Plain

This feelings feeling plain

Plain

I always knew wed be plain

Did you ever even feel some kind of way

Cause now when I look at you, yeah, I feel plain

Our kisses never hot, never cold

Thought you were the one, you were just her mold

Wouldnt call it stale, wouldnt call it fresh

Doesnt tip the scale, it aint seasoned yet

Wouldnt say its good, wouldnt say its bad

But I guarantee youve already had it

Plain

This feelings feeling plain

Plain

I always knew wed be plain

Plain

This feelings feeling plain

Plain

I always knew wed be plain
