

Who You Say I Am

Among the Thirsty

my sin says im unworthy my shame that im alone my heart tells me im broken and i cant be made whole but every since the day i ran into your grace
you call me righteous
you call me yours
no longer guilty not anymore i am rewritten im spoken for a new creation now i stand cause of who you say i am lord help me to believe in you salvation covers me oh and im not abundant. your grace is enough for me its enough for me
you call me yours no longer guilty not anymore and i am rewritten im spoken for a new creation now i stand because of who you say i am not bound by who i was my identity redefined by love oh i am not bound by who i was my identity redefined by love
so i am righteous and i am yours
i am rewritten im spoken for a new creation now i stand cause of who you say i am a new creation now i stand cause of who you say i am
