

Melody Lee

The Damned

Melody lee, a broken man and a broken dream
It must have been a change of heart
Your life was cruel they called it art
Melody lee, you need a nuke to set you free
You know you can't cheat tomorrow
If you hide any sorrow
Melody lee, you gotta find your secret enemy
You're on the run with nowhere to go
If you die someone to know
Forget your heart, you need not stay
A second longer than today
Melody lee, a broken man and a broken dream
It must have been a change of heart
Your life was cruel they called it art
