

Always Do

O'Connor Band & Mark O'Connor

Away, I'm bound away
Following tail-lights Okay, I'll be okay
Until sometime tonight When I turn off my radio, and your voice comes singin' through And I fall in love again
I always do Away, while I'm away
They'll welcome me inside
And say, that I can stay
If I need somewhere to hide But it isn't what I'm runnin' from It's what I'm running to To fall in love again
I always do Away, I'll make my way
Back to your front door I'll pray, till then I'll pray
That just like every time before When I'm lying in your arms
And feeling like brand new
That we'll fall in love again
We always do Ooooo
We always do, ooooo Ooooo
