

The Buffoon and the Dean of Admissions

Adam Sandler

And now a Buffoon's meeting with The Dean of Admissions at a prestigious college Well Micheal i'd like to extend my warmest congratulations on you're upcoming graduation and I understand you're interested in matriculating here in fall I got a snake man! Yes pets are welcome here on campus be at a dog, or cat and even the occasional reptile. One time i fed it some beer man, it was slivering this way and that! It was all fucked up! I'm sure it was. Well we discourage inappropriate drinking among both students AND pets here on campus FUCKING SHIT! Yes, that's a not-uncommon reaction to this policy.
So tell me a little bit more about you're background.
My father's a fucking ass hole man! Hmm, I see. Your feelings of rebellion are not unusual at your age son. My mother's a piece of shit too! Well I hope you can find an outlet for you're hostility over the summer... So you can come to school in the fall relaxed and ready to learn. My teacher in High School was a stupid bitch man!
She had her head way up her ass! Well the quality of the faculty of the university such as ours far exceeds that of a public high school. You're secretary is a real fat bitch man! Yes she tried many diets over the years with minimal success. I had diarrhea last month, I had to shit all fucking day! Uh huh... Well we all get the occasional stomach bug, never a pleasurable experience... So, have you given any thought to your choice of major?
I got a big fucking boner right now! Um. I see. Well sexual arousal is not uncommon during periods of nervous tension, I don't take offence. One time I ate my neighbour's shit! It's understandable. Well I enjoyed meeting you and we'll send you our decision at the end of the month. I bet you have really hairy balls! Yes. It's a heritable forest down there. Bye-Bye.
