The Isle of Innisfree

Bing Crosby & John Scott Trotter and His Orchestra

I've met some folks who say that I'm a dreamer

And I've no doubt there's truth in what they say

But sure a body's bound to be a dreamer

When all the things he loves are far awayAnd precious things are dreams unto an exile

They take him o'er the land across the sea

Especially when it happens he's an exile

From that dear lovely Isle of InnisfreeAnd when the moonlight peeps across the rooftops

Of this great city, wondrous though it be

I scarcely feel its wonder or its laughter

I'm once again back home in InnisfreeI wander o'er green hills through dreamy valleys

And find a peace no other land could know

I hear the birds make music fit for angels

And watch the rivers laughing as they flow

But dreams don't last though dreams are not forgotten

And soon I'm back to stern reality

But though they pave the foot ways here with gold dust

I still would choose the Isle of Innisfree
