

Nightcrawler

Rebelution

Look straight ahead in the distance, so yeah there's a nightcrawler
Yeah you'd better move quick, don't you know she's a night stalker
Look straight ahead in the distance, so yeah there's a nightcrawler
Yeah you'd better move quick, don't you know she's a night stalker
She'll take away all the love that you feel, yeahs she'll want to suck up and steal
She'll try to look around town with her wicked eye, but we'll love and come real She'll try to cover herself in the underground, she thinks she's got it locked down
But take it from me she's so lonelyBrep bap bap ohyeah
Now look straight ahead in the distance
Yes there's a nightcrawler walking with her fist clenched, but raise up
And feed her some happiness
Before you know it she'll be smiling with some love and yes
Alright, now let me tell you what we're trying to suggest:
Once again, Rebelution on a loving quest
We'll tell her to look at the ocean when the sun sets, or light
Put out our hands for the unfortunate
Alright, pick up the slack from the wickedness
Straight up, clean up our manners and our etiquette
Alright now look straight ahead in the distance, so yeah there's a nightcrawler
Yeah you'd better move quick, don't you know she's a night stalker
Look straight ahead in the distance, so yeah there's a nightcrawlerYeah you'd better move quick, don't you know she's a night stalker Late night, 3 in the morning yeah, you can hear her footsteps one after the other and?
Nobody ever seen her talk back, nobody ever seen her walking on the right track Tell me do you know where your soul is?
You glitter but the gold's up in the night's mist, and it's crawling up on yaHow many people in this house tonight feel that sense of aggravation on a lonely night
Alright look straight ahead in the distance
Yes there's a nightcrawler walking with her fist clenched, but raise up
And feed her some happiness
Before you know it she'll be smiling with some love and yes
Alright, now let me tell you what we're trying to suggest
Once again, Rebelution on a loving quest
We'll tell her to look at the ocean when the sun sets or light
Put out our hands for the unfortunate
Alright, pick up the slack from the wickedness
Straight up, clean up our manners and our etiquette
Alright now look straight ahead in the distance, so yeah there's a nightcrawler
Yeah you'd better move quick, don't you know she's a night stalker
Huuyeah
Look straight ahead in the distance, so yeah there's a nightcrawler

Yeah you'd better move quick, don't you know she's a night stalker
