

Let It Go (feat. Nicky Romero)

NERVO

Now starts the time
Starts the time, starts the time
Here we draw the line
Draw the line, draw the line Today doesn't start again
Doesn't ever get a second chance
It's too late if you're wondering
'Cause you're never gonna take it back
Right now all that matters is
Is how we're gonna let it go
So leave out what you cannot change
And pretty soon you're gonna know
Let it go, let it go
Let it go, gotta let it go
Let it go, let it go
Let it go and lose control
Let it go, let it go
Let it go, gotta let it go
Let it go, let it go
Let it go and lose control Now starts the time
Starts the time, starts the time
Here we draw the line
Draw the line, draw the line
'Cause your eyes don't lie from what they're meaning
And the light inside keeps you holding on Right now all that matters is
Is how we're gonna let it go
So leave out what you cannot change
And pretty soon you're gonna know
Let it go, let it go
Let it go, gotta let it go
Let it go, let it go
Let it go and lose control
Let it go, let it go
Let it go, gotta let it go
Let it go, let it go
Let it go and lose control You, you got the chance, you do
Nobody else but you
So stand up and face it
You've got to take it
Nothing can break you down
