Open the amps up - let them breathe You and me in this scene Open the big camera box now Bleed the lens (and oh how) It reminds me of a kid - always lit, always did Exactly what I saidEven if I didn't know Even if I didn't go Straight Straight Open the doors - let the light in Let it blend/winter mind And if the winter wind chills me Then we will know to bend it backwards You say you know my friend That one kid I mistook for my future would you know Where to go, and where to find him? Stay
