

Blaze of Glory

Kevin Rudolf

Walk through the valley of the shadow
On the run ready for a battle
Looking through the eyes of the tiger
No fear, cool like a sniper
Iron fist, that's how I run this
From the streets climbed up to the summit
I've been the hunter, I've been the hunted
Down on, now you got another thing coming
How, how bad do you want it?
How, how bad do you want it?
How, how bad do you want it?
How, how bad do you want it?
How, how bad do you want it?
How, how bad do you want it?
I'm going up in the Blaze of Glory
Flying high, go soaring with no warning
I'm going up in the Blaze of Glory
Let the sky, let the fleet tell the story
Roll up, roaring like thunder
Up the king street into the jungle
Pressurized and tried by the fire
New king, ghetto empire
One ruler, air to the power
Clock strikes, it's the final hour
Under the full moon, red like a bloodstain
Chemicals running through your bloodstream
How, how bad do you want it?
How, how bad do you want it?
How, how bad do you want it?
How, how bad do you want it?
How, how bad do you want it?
How, how bad do you want it?
How, how bad do you want it?
I'm going up in the Blaze of Glory
Flying high, go soaring with no warning
I'm going up in the Blaze of Glory
Let the sky, let the fleet tell the story
How, how bad do you want it?
How, how bad do you want it?
How, how bad do you want it?
I'm going up in the Blaze of Glory
Flying high, go soaring with no warning
I'm going up in the Blaze of Glory
Let the sky, let the fleet tell the story
