

Three Packs a Day

Courtney Barnett

1, 2, 3, 4 I'm down to three packs a day
Of Mi Goreng, I can't explain it
Can't wait for you to go away
Cause I just crave that meager taste, yeah Boil it up, water in the sauce pan
In a cup, drink it from a silver spoon That MSG tastes good to me
I disagree with all your whining
It can't be true that they use glue to
Keep the noodles stuck together
Two minutes seems like a lifetime
Burn my tongue, patience is a virtue
I'm down to three packs a day
I sneak away to find a kettle
I withdraw from all my friends
And their dinner plans, I'm sick of lentils
Boil it up, water in a sauce pan
In a cup, drink it from a silver spoon It is no good
It is no good
You say, "it's no good for you"
