

Adobe Walls

Gary Allan

Buenos noches senorita,
I'm mighty pleased to meet ya
Maybe you and I could sit a spell and talk
I'm new to Santa Fe,
I just rode into town today
Thought I'd spend some time
In these adobe walls
It's dark in this cantina,
It's a wonder that I seen ya
Sittin' without any company at all
I was wondering if we might
Dance away this lonely night
Like two shadows on these old adobe walls
I hear Celito Lindo softly playing
As I take you in my arms and hold you close
Though I don't understand a word you're saying
Your brown eyes tell me all I need to know
These walls have stood for ages
And though time still turns its pages
Hearts are still the same
When night begins to fall
Sure as there are stars above
We're not the first to fall in love
That's the magic of these old adobe walls--- Instrumental ---I hear Celito Lindo softly playing
As I take you in my arms and hold you close
Though I don't understand a word you're saying
Your brown eyes tell me all I need to know
These walls have stood for ages
And though time still turns its pages
Hearts are still the same
When night begins to fall
As sure as there are stars above
We're not the first to fall in love
That's the magic of these old adobe walls
As sure as there are stars above
We're not the first to fall in love
That's the magic of these old adobe walls...

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>