

Bushido

HammerFall

Screaming and twisting
He's pounding his sword to the ground
A soul made of fire
A heart made of solid steel
Fear the sound Guided by courage
The fear of eternal disgrace
The spirit of daring
The trail of his lifeblood fail to embrace Trapped in the corner
Hell or paradise?
Forever failure or self-sacrifice? I'm a warrior, I am
In the rising sun I stand
My true color is shining bright inside
Aeonian flames
Winding and turning
He's seeking a path to survive
The hunter is the hunted
The spectre within will soon come alive
The spirits of bearing
By seven the virtues unite Never surrender
Be ready to kill
When killing is right
Shame and dishonor
The wrath of the sword
Beyond all barrings
The honored restored I'm a warrior, I am
In the rising sun I stand
My true color is shining bright inside
Aeonian flames
I'm the warrior, I am
I'm a soldier under command
In the setting sun, I carry on
The code of the warrior soul Honor, courage and rectitude
Tempered by ancient wisdom
One law, one life in solitude
Live by the code
Die by the sword I'm a warrior, I am
In the rising sun I stand
My true color is shining bright inside
Aeonian flames I'm a warrior, I am
In the rising sun I stand
My true color is shining bright inside
Aeonian flames I'm the warrior, I am

I'm a soldier under command
In the setting sun, I carry on
The code of the warrior soul This is the way
