

Doing Me

RAY BLK

Sometimes I wear my hair down to my back
Or I cut a bob and do it into single plaits
And if it's the summertime maybe do a weave
Always change my style depending where my head is at Sometimes I wear my v neck real low
If I'm feeling sexy then expect some skin will show
Maybe wear a turtle neck if I'm feeling cold
My dressing is expression so don't judge me by my clothes
Some days I roll up in the hood and a trackie

Turning up your nose cause you think I look tacky
I go to a Michelin meal in my Reebox
Ain't gotta wear my wares and be flashy
A short skirt doesn't mean that I want it
My appearance doesn't represent my wallet
This is for the ignorant ones with opinions
Keep your two cents inside your pocket
I'm just doing me
I'm just doing me me me me
Well I'd wish you'd do you
That's what you should do do do do
I'm gonna show ya, show ya, show ya
I'm gonna show ya, show ya, show ya
And you can do you

That's what you should do do do do I see you following submission I know you're wishing

That you could let you hair down a mirror, my emission
So why you worrying about being an outcast
Don't you know to do yourself and never ask permission
My short shorts accentuate my bumper
I hear the girls whisper whenever I walk past
"What she wearing?" but I paid them no attention
To satisfy them is never my intention
Some days I roll up in the hood and a trackie
Turning up your nose cause you think I look tacky
I go to a Michelin meal in my Reebox
Ain't gotta wear my wares and be flashy
A short skirt doesn't mean that I want it
My appearance doesn't represent my wallet
This is for the ignorant ones with opinions
Keep your two cents inside your pocket I'm just doing me
I'm just doing me me me me
Well I'd wish you'd do you
That's what you should do do do do

I'm gonna show ya, show ya, show ya
I'm gonna show ya, show ya, show ya
And you can do you
That's what you should do do do do I'd rather do me so you can do you
You're following the crowd, I'd rather break rules
You're copying trends I'd rather invent
I've got nothing to prove but neither do you
Said I'd rather do me so you can do you
You're following the crowd, I'd rather break rules
And you're copying trends I'd rather invent
I've got nothing to prove but neither do you I'm just doing me
I'm just doing me me me me
Well I'd wish you'd do you
That's what you should do do do do
I'm gonna show ya, show ya, show ya
I'm gonna show ya, show ya, show ya
And you can do you
That's what you should do do do do I'm just doing me
You try doing you
I'm just doing me
You try doing you
I'm just doing me
You try doing you
I'm just doing me
You try doing you
