

Energy

Skillet

'Power' is another word that I use to describe You
Your mighty winds come in and blow me away Frightening, coming at me like lightning
It's You that I fear, yeah yeah
I shake whenever You speak my name And I'm surrounded You're a silent rage, You're a hurricane
You are everything I cannot see and can't explain
You're an enigma wrapped in a mystery
Everywhere I go, I can't escape Your energy Divine is a reality that You define, You defy time
I see You in everything in fire and wind and rain
'Captured' is just the word to capture how I feel when I'm still
You are what I crave, You set me free I want to be Your slave And I'm surrounded You're a silent rage, You're a hurricane
You are everything I cannot see and can't explain
You're an enigma wrapped in a mystery
Everywhere I go, I can't escape Your energy I can't escape Your energy
I can't escape Your energy
I can't escape Your energy
I can't escape Your energy I can't escape Your energy
I can't escape Your energy
I can't escape Your energy
I can't escape Your energy
'Power' is another word that I use to describe You
Your mighty winds come and blow me away You're a silent rage, You're a hurricane
You are everything I cannot see and can't explain
You're an enigma wrapped in a mystery
Everywhere I go, I can't escape Your energy
I can't escape it
I can't escape, no, no, no
Everywhere I go
I can't escape Your energy
