

Another Side (feat. Wrabel)

Matisse & Sadko & Robert Falcon

So I'll break myself open
Stuck in the middle of your ocean
Falling apart in slowmotion
Pull me downWaiting on a phone call
Got me thinking that it's my fault
How you walking through my walls
Inside outSo it goes and I feel it all you don't
There's gotta be another side
Another side of this thing
So it goes and I say the words you won't
There's gotta be another side
Another side of this thing
Another side of this thing
Another side of this thing
(Hey, hey, hey)
(Hey, hey, hey)
Another side of this thingSo I pull myself together
Half my heart is getting better
Are you opening my letters?
I don't knowWaiting on a phone call
Got me thinking that it's my fault
How you walking through my walls
Inside outSo it goes and I feel it all you don't
There's gotta be another side
Another side of this thing
So it goes and I say the words you won't
There's gotta be another side
Another side of this thing
Another side of this thing
Another side of this thing
I feel it on the inside
I feel it on the outside
There's gotta be another side
Another side of this thing
Another side of this thing
(Hey, ooh, hey, ooh, hey, ooh)
Another side of this thing
(Hey, ooh, hey, ooh, hey, ooh)
Another side of this thing
