

Pick It Up

Donnie Klang

You look so hesitant babe and you won't let down your guard
'Cause somebody broke your heart
I'm on a mission to fix that There's no way in hell he's coming back You get so sensitive when I bring up the way it was
The way he cause a fuss
When you would show up ten minutes late
Like he never ever made mistakes Baby let me hold you, baby let me show you
I can do it better baby like he was supposed to
I'll make you forget him, forget you was with him
'Cause you fell in love and lost so much
Now I'm here to pick you up
Pick it up, pick it up, I'm picking up the pieces
Pick it up, pick it up, of you heart I'm healing you, you
If you're ready to love again
Then baby reach for my hand and know that I can Pick it up, pick it up and put you back together
Pick it up, pick it up, I'll be there through whatever
If you're ready to trust again, you're ready to take a chance
Girl you know, you know I'll pick you up again You haven't got out of your bed
You stain your pillow case with tears running down your face
I know what happened in your past
All of the things you didn't have, oh So baby let me hold you, baby let me show you
I can do it better baby like he was supposed to
I'll make you forget him, forget you was with him
'Cause you fell in love and lost so much
Now I'm gonna pick you up
Pick it up, pick it up, I'm picking up the pieces
Pick it up, pick it up, of you heart I'm healing you, you
If you're ready to love again
Then baby reach for my hand and know that I can Pick it up, pick it up and put you back together
Pick it up, pick it up, I'll be there through whatever
If you're ready to trust again, you're ready to take a chance
Girl you know I'm gonna, I'll pick you up again Baby you won't regret, I keep my promises
If you're looking for some good love, girl I got that good love
You know you want that good love, yeah Baby you won't regret, I keep my promises
If you're looking for some good love, girl, I got that good love
You know you want that good love Pick it up, pick it up, I'm picking up the pieces
Pick it up, pick it up, of you heart I'm healing you, you
If you're ready to love again
together baby

Pick it up, pick it up, I'll be there through whatever
If you're ready to trust again, you're ready to take a chance
You know I'll pick you up again Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up, pick it up
I'm gonna pick you up baby
Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up, pick it up
I'm gonna pick you up baby Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up, pick it up
I'm gonna pick you up baby
Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up, pick it up
You know that I can Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up, pick it up
Picking up the pieces
Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up, pick it up
Picking up the pieces Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up, pick it up
Picking up the pieces
Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up, pick it up
Picking up the pieces Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up, pick it up
Picking up the pieces
Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up, pick it up
Picking up the pieces Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up, pick it up
Picking up the pieces
Pick it up, pick it up, pick it up, pick it up
Picking up the pieces
