

I Wanna Make You Cry

Jeff Bates

How long has it been?
How long have you held it in?
And how long will you wait
Before you let somebody take your breath away
Again? I want to be the one who turns you on
Makes love til the lonely's gone
Be the man you've dreamed of all your life
I swear I'll make it last until
Tears of joy come pourin' from your eyes
I want to make you cry
Tell me what to do
And I'll do what you want me to
'Cause darlin, I believe
That I have fallen hopelessly and helplessly
For you I want to be the one who turns you on
Makes love til the lonely's gone
Be the man you've dreamed of all your life
I swear I'll make it last until
Tears of joy come pourin' from your eyes
I want to make you cry
I swear I'll make it last until
Tears of joy come pourin' from your eyes
I want to make you cry
I want to make you cry
