

Everything Unwinds

Willis Earl Beal

Full moon breeze
There's gold in your eyes
I'm staring at the glass
And slipping at the lines
Mirrors in mind
Show reflections of time
As everything unwinds
As everything unwinds
Unwinds
Now I'm dancing in the alley
With rust in my soul
Facing all the dumpsters
With no particular goal
The train is just a memory
The road may be kind
As everything unwinds
As everything unwinds
Unwinds You're the one that I needed
And the reason I wept
You're lost before a while
You're the one that I kept
It seems like a mystery
It's too strange to define
But everything unwinds
Everything unwinds
Unwinds
Unwinds
Unwinds
Unwinds
