

What We Have (feat. DeJ Loaf)

Nef The Pharaoh

I just wanna know if it's real
If it's real I'm always telling her lies
And steady making her cry
She say 'I just wanna know if what we have is real'
It's real, it's real, it's real
She always is on my case
She hanging up in my face
She say 'I just wanna know if what we have is real'
It's real, it's real, it's real
I know I cheated, I'm a dog, babe
I know I make your life hard, baby
But you my nigga and I love you baby
My down ass nigga and I love you baby
Yes, I fight if you fighting, I hold you at night
Steady do me dirty but it was not right
My nigga and I love you babe
My down ass nigga and I love you baby
And you be out with other niggas
But I treat 'em like they bitches
Trust me, they are not important, you the only one
But you my nigga and I love you baby
My down ass nigga and I love you baby
I'm always telling her lies
And steady making her cry
She say 'I just wanna know if what we have is real'
It's real, it's real, it's real
She always is on my case
She hanging up in my face
She say 'I just wanna know if what we have is real'
It's real, it's real, it's real I know we fight and have our arguments
Girl, you irreplaceable and all that shit
But you my nigga and I love you baby (love you too)
My down ass nigga and I love you baby
Never hurts sometimes to realise that you were all the good in life
But you my nigga and I love you baby
My down ass nigga and I love you baby
And I be out with other women but I treat 'em like they bitches
Trust me, they are not important, you the only one I need
But you my nigga and I love you baby
My down ass nigga and I love you baby I'm always telling her lies
And steady making her cry
She say 'I just wanna know if what we have is real'

It's real, it's real, it's real
She always is on my case
She hanging up in my face
She say 'I just wanna know if what we have is real'
It's real, it's real, it's real I just wanna know, I just wanna know
I just wanna know, I just wanna know
I just wanna know, I just wanna know
I just wanna know, I just wanna know
I just wanna know, I just wanna know
I just wanna know, I just wanna know I'm always telling her lies
And steady making her cry
She say 'I just wanna know if what we have is real'
It's real, it's real, it's real
She always is on my case
She hanging up in my face
She say 'I just wanna know if what we have is real'
It's real, it's real, it's real
