

Creep Fast (feat. T-Pain)

Twista & T-Pain

Police, we have a search warrant, freeze
C'mon, c'mon, T-Pain, T-Pain, it's Twista
Come this way, c'mon, we gotta creep fast, c'mon
Watch as I hit it through the middle of the city in the Chevy
And I'm ready with the woofers that'll flip your block
And I got the tick and a machete for the niggas actin' petty
Get to talkin' an' I'm a heat up your block
If you wanna bring your boys, better bring the toys
Better bring the noise, I'm a pump both up with ammunition Bodies I be hittin' when I get to spittin'
Everybody shoulda broke and ain't nobody listen so now I
Roll 'em 24s when I'm on your tip
They don't know who I am, ain't no body talkin' shit
Tell me when did they ever think that I was a hoe
'Cause I got killas with me crips, bloods, G's and folks
And we be focused on the paper
When we be up in the kitchen
When we thinkin' about the money
On the steady come up
And I got the niggas that be ready for Whatever with a whole war chest if a nigga run up
AK 47, desert eagle, SK, Mac 11
For the niggas that'll try to run up
Nigga what ya want I'm a bone thug
Get you while your sleepin'
'Cause you know I'm creepin' on ah come up Motherfuckers actin' like they don't know me
But they know just who I am
I'm a motherfuckin' killa gorilla nigga
You better act like you understand
'Cause I'm a killer, a mass murda
The realest nigga that you ever heard of Motherfuckers actin' like they don't know the deal
But they know just what to do
Everybody talkin' in the streets so you know
That I'm comin' straight for you
I'm a killa, a mass murda
The realest nigga that you ever heard of
Quit the playin' nigga and get over on the Twista
I'm a see you when I see you and I wouldn't want to be you
Got the desert eagle when I'm rollin' in the regal
And I'm lookin' at you evil through the eye of a needle
Not a misdemeanor but a murder with a millimeter
Feel the heat of Twista when I'm bustin' at your whip
I get a burglar when I be comin' for your shit
I'm a get you for your goods when I run up in your crib Tell me where your jewelry at, where your safe?
Don't make me have to smack this ugly bitch in her face

Is it behind the portrait or is it in your floor?
Just let me know so that I can hit it up 'cause I gotta go 'Cause I gotta throw it so I had to lick on them niggas
'Cause it used to be that if I had to hit 'em, I'ma get 'em
Never ride a burgundy Lamborghini Murciélago
Through the city because I know that'll kill 'em Averagin' a 100 yards a game my competition
Better back up I'm the E runnin' back
Niggas that ain't ready get the machete
For the lyrical Jason of rap I'ma keep comin' back Motherfuckers actin' like they don't know me
But they know just who I am
I'm a motherfuckin' killa gorilla nigga
You better act like you understand
'Cause I'm a killer, a mass murda
The realest nigga, that you ever heard of Motherfuckers actin' like they don't know the deal
But they know just what to do
Everybody talkin' in the streets so you know
That I'm comin' straight for you
I'm a killa, a mass murda
The realest nigga, that you ever heard of The lyrical assassin the pocket I got in
I be attackin' the track and I got a package of the good
See a legendary representator for the city
'Cause I put it down ever since I been rappin' in the hood 17 years of goin' and flowin' and showin'
These niggas when it come to beaten me nobody could
I was spittin' venom ever sense the days UGK been rappin'
And talkin' about puttin' diamonds on the wood Pullin' up in a old Cadillac before I got some things
And I got that gwap and the numba one spot now I ride a range
And because I spit that crack is the reason we got some change
And if we ain't makin' money off rap then we got them things Got the 8 dollar hollas two for 15's
A 4 and a split a nine piece so you can hit the whole brick
How I win it by makin' a 100 every summer Pullin' up in the Hummer can make a nigga so sick How we constantly come up with hits and steady be gettin' fans
Is only because a nigga flows sick
Showin' no debate everybody know I'm great
Any motherfuckers that hate can suck my dick Motherfuckers actin' like they don't know me
But they know just who I am
I'm a motherfuckin' killa gorilla nigga
You better act like you understand
'Cause I'm a killer, a mass murda
The realest nigga that you ever heard of Motherfuckers actin' like they don't know the deal
But they know just what to do
Everybody talkin' in the streets so you know
That I'm comin' straight for you
I'm a killa, a mass murda
The realest nigga, that you ever heard of
