

Unbreakable

Four Year Strong

This is for the losers and the rejects
This is for cowards and cynics
You are the reason you're to blame
You're not going to drag me down with you We are the ones that stand our ground
We are the ones that won't back down
We are the rise but not the fall
We are the writing on the wall
We are unbreakable
This is for the liars and the trainwrecks
This is for the downers and the homesick
You feel the need to rearrange
You're not going to drag me down with you We are the ones that stand our ground We are the ones that won't back down
We are the rise but not the fall
We are the writing on the wall
We are unbreakable So sad, but true
You feel like you're unbreakable We are the ones that stand our ground
We are the ones that won't back down
We are the rise but not the fall
We are the writing on the wall
We are the firsts but not the lasts
We are the future not the past
We are the? we are the break
We fight to live another day
We are the unbreakable
