

Promise (feat. K.Fløy)

Kaskade

Walked around this empty town
3AM no one around
All the shops are closed
And I'm close to passing out
Got a place I ought to be
And someone who's missing me
But my mind
No my mind can't get you out I know I'm not supposed to say it
I know I'm not supposed to think
But I got it
Bad, bad, bad
I know I'm not supposed to say it
I know we can't ever be
But I want it
Bad, bad, bad
Promise when you're with her that you're picturing me
That it's all you can do
That I'm all you can see
Promise when I'm him that I'm picturing you And when you're loving her
Promise that you're loving me too
Promise (oh)
Promise that you're loving me too Promise that you're loving me too
Promise (oh) Promise that you're loving me too
Promise that you're loving me too
Promise that you're loving me too
Promise (oh)
On the night that we both met Painted eyes and silhouettes
I said "Hi" and you said
"Let's go inside instead"
How could something feel so right?
When it meant we had to lie
All I got now
Is this pounding
In my chest I know I'm not supposed to say it
I know I'm not supposed to think
But I got it
Bad, bad, bad I know I'm not supposed to say it
I know we can't ever be
But I want it
Bad, bad, bad
Promise when you're with her that you're picturing me
That it's all you can do

That I'm all you can see Promise when I'm him that I'm picturing you
And when you're loving her
Promise that you're loving me too
Promise (oh)
Promise that you're loving me too
Promise that you're loving me too
Promise (oh)
Promise that you're loving me too
Promise that you're loving me too
Promise that you're loving me too
Promise (oh)
Promise (oh)
Promise (oh)
Promise (oh)
