

Art of Moving On

Heffron Drive

I don't remember what we might have said
No I didn't bother to write it down anyhow
All of the memories spun like a web
And I can't get out, get out, get out I gave everything I got not to lose you
We choose to say goodbye but I choose you
I choose you I keep building walls but you're always on my mind
Won't let them fall down I'm tired can we give up the art of moving on, on, on
It keeps me up all night, all night, oooohhh It keeps me up all night, all night, oooohhh
Feels like I'm stuck here frozen in time
If it wasn't real then I wonder what really is If there's a world where you could be mine That's where I'd live, I'd live, I'd live-I gave everything I got not to lose you, not to lose you
I keep building walls but you're always on my mind
Won't let them fall down I'm tired can we give up the art of moving on, on, on
It keeps me up all night, all night, oooohh
It keeps me up all night, all night, oooohhh
I gave everything I got not to lose you... not to lose you
We choose to say goodbye but I choose you... I choose you
I keep building walls but you're always on my mind
Won't let them fall down I'm tired can we give up the art of moving on, on
I keep building walls but you're always on my mind
It keeps me up all night, all night, oohhh
