

Age of Innocence (feat. Trouze & Damon Sharpe)

Elephante

caught between a brush and a painted skyso lost within the hopes of a wandering mindthe waves we rode the tales we told who'd known that they would lead us to right now we've waited for this moment all our livescause it all makes sense when we take it back to the age of innocence come with me my friends let us
take it back to the age of innocence
oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh ohcus' it all makes sensecus' it all makes sensesay, under a dark blue sea of stars a place, beyond the pain of a broken heartthe waves we rode the tales we told who'd known that they would lead us to right now we've waited for this moment all our lives cause it all makes sense when we take it back to the age of innocence
come with me my friends let us
oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh oh oh oh oh, oh oh oh oh x3
cus' it all makes sense
when we take it back to the age of innocence
come with me my friends let us
