

Denial Waits (Danny Lohner Remix) [Bonus Track]

Ashes Divide

Denial waits, it's here to claim me now
As I crawl down to hell,
For a chance that you'll come around,
And lay down tonight.
But I'm left telling myself that everything will be alright
Run away from the way that you love me
With no regrets
Just walk away don't wanna hear that you're sorry,
From words unsaid
So stay away, I know you wanna destroy me
And fade away
Cause I know.
If I just closed my eyes
I'll still see your lips saying "Everything will be alright."
If I saw you right now, I'm embarrassed to say
I'd take you back and we could just pretend you never went away
Run away from the way that you love me
With no regrets
Just walk away don't wanna hear that you're sorry,
From words unsaid
So stay away, I know you wanna destroy me
Just save your breath
Cause I know.
Denial waits, it's here to claim you now
Denial waits, it's here to claim you now
Run away from the way that you love me
With no regrets
Just walk away don't wanna hear that you're sorry,
From words unsaid
Denial waits
Denial waits
