

Ashes

10 Years

Our we predisposed as embryos to find a soul somewhere down this rabbit hole
Rabidly adapting struggle with this gravity
Trying to stay on our feet
Ashes to ashes; dust into dust
Lay your memory out to rust Complicate confusing change
Constantly consuming days
Without a clue of what to do, stumbling on as reckless youth trying to find some truth
Ashes to ashes; dust into dust
Lay your memories out to rust
Ashes into ashes, dust into dust
Lay your memories out to rust
Bittersweet melodies, amazing grace haunting me
Memories pave the way; ashes to ashes Exciting more or less and more between the lines
Die ignoring minds
Ashes to ashes, dust to dust
Lay your memories out to rust
Bittersweet melodies, amazing grace haunting me
Memories pave the way; ashes to ashes
