

Heartbreak City

Alphaville

Heartbreak
Heartbreak City
Heartbreak
Heartbreak City
Strange is the night Catch the next train from self pity
It takes you straight to Heartbreak City
Don't have to ask for a first class ticket
Because it's free for those who deserve the visit Take a walk on lonely street now
Don't you stop, don't you shuffle your feet now
Never look back to where you came from
Nothing there but a goblin maelstrom
You're goin' to...
Heartbreak City, you can't let go
The fools in love, the too much and the not enough
Heartbreak City, strange is the night
Where black stars rise with strange moons in the skies Days obscured by silent sorrow
I hope to hell it's better tomorrow
Fools are nailed at the glowing skyline
Burning angels make, ooh, the night shine One last chance now and you've had many Oh, they all, they just passed you by
Hold on tight now, the train is moving
Another day, another goodbye
Say hello to... Heartbreak City, you can't let go
The fools in love, the too much and the not enough
Heartbreak City, a creeping sorrow
A pallid dolly, ten courts to hell and a dead man's folly
Heartbreak, you can't let go
The fools in love
Heartbreak, strange is the night
Where black stars rise
Heartbreak, a pallid dolly
A dead man's folly
Heartbreak, it don't heal clean
The fools in love (the too much and the not enough) Heartbreak City, it don't heal clean
The fools in love, the too much and the not enough
Heartbreak City, strange is the night
Where black stars rise with strange moons in the skies Heartbreak City, the king in yellow
The falling rain, they won't help to ease your pain
(Strange is the night) Catch the next train from self pity
It takes you straight to Heartbreak City
Catch the next train from self pity

It takes you straight to Heartbreak City
