

Love Can't Wait

Lil Suzy

It's so hard to find a love that's true
Someone that understands your feelings
We're apart but when I think of you
I know it's real love I'm feeling I just can't understand the reason why
They say I'm too young for love
The thought of losing you just makes me cry
There's one thing I've learned about love Love can't wait for too long
(Don't give it time to fade)
Hold on to love when it's strong
(Don't let it slip away)
Love can't wait for too long
(No matter what they say)
With you is where I belong
(Oh baby, love can't wait)
(Don't give it time to fade)
(Don't let it slip away) Here we are, pretending we don't care
Pretending that it doesn't matter
You're so far and boy it's so unfair
That all my hopes and dreams are shattered I just can't understand the reason why
They say I'm too young for love
The thought of losing you just makes me cry
There's one thing I've learned about love Love can't wait for too long
(Don't give it time to fade)
Hold on to love when it's strong
(Don't let it slip away)
Love can't wait for too long
(No matter what they say)
With you is where I belong
(Oh baby, love can't wait)
(Don't give it time to fade)
(Don't let it slip away) Don't let it slip away
