

Kodiak

Out Came the Wolves

Im not born to save you Im not born to save you²¹ so here's a lie I've seen it all I think I'm fine if there's a god don't tell me now another path another time i gave it all my dreams denied so if theres a god don't tell me now Who am i Who am i You're telling me there's a place a kodiak for heavens sake if this is real then tell me now just get me out Drowning in homes that we make so paralyzed
waiting for something to change but it never does
Drowning in homes that we make
we're paralyzed
waiting for something the nation of nothing Think think think Where did i put my fucking keys think think think³ more hours left now (i hear it now) i can hear the ocean (i hear it now) New orleans in my sight I came alone and i feel alive I swear ill never turn around My head in the clouds Drowning in homes that we make
so paralyzed
waiting for something to change
but it never does
Drowning in homes that we make
we're paralyzed
waiting for something the nation of nothing Don't wake up Were not getting younger Were not getting any younger Drowning in homes that we make Waiting for something to change Drowning in homes that we make
so paralyzed
waiting for something to change
but it never does
Drowning in homes that we make
we're paralyzed

waiting for something
the nation of nothing Drowning in homes that we make
Drowning in homes that we make

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>