

Finally Falling

Victorious Cast & Victoria Justice

Suddenly,
My choice is clear
I knew that only you and I were standing here
That money isn't worth a thing if you didn't earn it,
You don't deserve it
True love doesn't cost a thing
And if you try to buy it,
You can't return it
No, no, no woah
Your friends are doing all the same things
And my friends say
Look at what you're wasting
But it doesn't matter if you change their minds
Suddenly I can see what I didn't before
And I don't care what they say anymore
Cause I'm falling (falling)
I'm finally falling (falling)
I don't need all finest things and diamond rings and nothing
So show me something
Cause love is all I need and all I ever wanted
And now I've got it
Yea, yea, yea
My friends are wonder what you're thinking
And your friends are
Probably think the same thing
But it doesn't matter if we change their minds
Suddenly I can see what I didn't before
And I don't care what they say anymore
Cause I'm falling (falling)
I'm finally falling (falling)
If you can't find love when your in it
Just forget it
It would change your mind once you get it
Don't you get it?
Cause we did it
Yea we did it
Well we did it
Suddenly I can see what I didn't before
And I don't care what they say anymore
Cause I'm falling (falling)
I'm finally falling (falling)
Suddenly I can see what I didn't before

And I don't care what they say anymore
Cause I'm falling (falling)
I'm finally falling (falling)
Finally falling (falling)
I'm finally falling (falling)
