James Brown

Cage the Elephant

Run around the corner Fell asleep in the sun You had to move into the shade Before you fire the gunWe got a hunger for destruction Need someone to bleed You sealed the deal before the dawn You let your actions proceedSome sunny day they're gonna come for you Some sunny day they're gonna come for you Sooner or later said you know that it's true Some sunny day they're gonna come for youYou think you're so sly You tried to roll by You played the safe side You said will somebody take me Down town Another James Brown You made the same sound You said will somebody write this down .... downFightin' back revenge You've got you're face to the ground You make excuses for the madness You've been hanging aroundYou built a house up in the trees So you could see everyone You set the clock and had a run You set the clock and had a runSome sunny day they're gonna come for you Some sunny day they're gonna come for you Sooner or later said you know that it's true Some sunny day they're gonna come for you You think you're so sly You tried to roll by You played the safe side You said will somebody take meDown town Another James Brown You made the same sound You said will somebody write this down... down Some sunny day they're gonna come for you Some sunny day they're gonna come for you Sooner or later said you know that it's true Some sunny day they're gonna come for youYou think you're so sly You tried to roll by You played the safe side You said will somebody take meDown town Another James Brown You made the same sound
