

Superficial Love

Ruth B.

But I need something deeper than this
I wanna know when I'm looking at you
That you don't only see the things you want to Cause I'm not perfect
I'm flawed
And if you don't like that
Get lost
Cause I don't wanna if it's fake
I don't wanna if it's just for show, for show
I just wanna if it's real
And I'm thinking I should let you know, you know...
This superficial love thing got me going crazy
Baby if you want me, then you better need me
Cause I'm so done, not being your number one
And if you wanna keep me then you better treat me
Like a damn princess, make that an empress
Cause I'm so done, not being your number one
The superficial love....
Fine, at first I won't deny
But I want more than just what meets the eye
I wanna know when your looking at me
That you see deep into my personality
Cause I want authentic, not just for fun
If this love is plastic
It all break on us
Cause I don't wanna if it's fake
I don't wanna if it's just for show
I just wanna if it's real
And I'm thinking I should let you know
This superficial love thing got me going crazy
Baby if you want me, then you better need me
Cause I'm so done, not being your number one
And if you wanna keep me then you better treat me
Like a damn princess, make that an empress
Cause I'm so done, not being your number one
The superficial love....
I can feel you on my lips all the time
But I just wanna feel you in my heart and on my mind
I can feel you on my lips all the time
But I just wanna feel you in my heart and on my mind
I can feel you on my lips all the time
But I just wanna feel you in my heart and on my mind

I can feel you on my lips all the time
And this ain't right...This superficial love thing got me going crazy
Baby if you want me, then you better need me
Cause I'm so done, not being your number one
And if you wanna keep me then you better treat me
Like a damn princess, make that an empress
Cause I'm so done, not being your number one
The superficial love....
I can feel you on my lips all the time
But I just wanna feel you in my heart and on my mind
I can feel you on my lips all the time
And this ain't right
The superficial love....
