

Go Into the Water

Dethklok

We call out to the Beasts of the sea to Come forth, and join us
This night is yours
Because one day
We will all be with you
In the blackened deep
One day, we will all
Go into the waterGo into the water,
live there, die there
Live there, die
We reject our Earthly fires
Gone are days of land-empires
Lungs transform to take in water
Cloaked in scales, we swim
And swim homeWe are alive
And we'll metamorphisize
And we'll sink
As we devolve back to beasts
Our home is down here
And we've known this for years
We must conquer from the seaWe are an army
With water steeds
We'll rise
From our depths down below
Release yourselves
Drown with me
We will conquer
Land with water
Gone are days of land-empires
Lungs transform to take in water
Cloaked in scales, we swim
And swim home
We swim home...
We swim home...
