

Would I

Randy Travis

Randy Travis
Would I, would I, would I
Would I go out honky tonkin' with you every night
Dance every dance till I got them all right
Would I do every step the way you thought I should
If I had you Baby maybe yes I would
Would I wake up every morning bring you breakfast in bed
With the right amount of butter on your toasted bread
Would I fix you brunch, lunch and dinner just as good
If I had you Baby maybe yes I would
Well if I had you there'd be nothing you could do or say
To ever make me make you go away
Would I, would I, would I
Would I cut my hair and change the way I dress
Finally get around to cleaning up this mess
Would I happily give up my bachelorhood
If I had you Baby maybe yes I would
Would I tear everybody from my little black book
Tell them all I was over the urge to look
Would I marry you then just to be sure they understood
If I had you Baby maybe yes I would
Well if I had you there'd be nothing you could do or say
To ever make me make you go away
Would I, would I, would I
If I had you Baby maybe yes, yes I would

Song Discussions is protected by U.S. Patent 9401941. Other patents pending.

Lyrics provided by <http://www.1songlyrics.com/>