

Forsaken

As I Lay Dying

YeahohI've looked straight into your eyes
And turned my head for the last time
Because I was scared to leave these walls in ruin
Like the fate of those who trust in themselves
We are alone and afraidI know YOU are the one we've left behind
Yet somehow we are the ones who are alone
YOU're the one we've left behind
YOU're the one we've leftI will no longer turn my head
I will never forget YOU
YOU are the one we've left behind
YOU are the forsakenYeah
We've built our confidence
On broken dreams now left for dead
Yet we've been condemned
Yet we've been condemnde
To chase these dreams that never endI know YOU are the one we've left behind
Yet somehow we are the ones who are alone
YOU're the one we've left behind
YOU're the one we've left behindI will no longer turn my head
I will never forget YOU
YOU are the one we've left behind
YOU are the forsaken
I will
I will no longer turn my head
I will
I will never forget YOU
YOU are
YOU are the one we've left behind
YOU are
YOU are the forsaken
Our selfishness consumes us
Until the whole world is not enough
Forgive the day that I erased
That I erased your name
That I erased your name
For it's the memory of me that will decayI know YOU are the forsaken
Somehow we are the ones who feel alone
I know YOU are the forsaken
Somehow we are the ones who feel alone
